American Airlines is proud to be the official airline partner of the James Beard Foundation, an organization with a mission to celebrate, support, and elevate the people behind America's food culture and champion a standard of good food anchored in talent, equity and sustainability.

Together, we're bringing acclaimed local chefs to their hometown lounges to serve up delicious and exclusive menu offerings.

Born and raised in Brooklyn, Chef Ayesha Nurdjaja's Indonesian and Italian heritage have inspired a love of bold flavors and generous hospitality. Her menus at Shuka and Shukette draw inspiration from the vibrant flavors of the Levant. Shuka is a Soho neighborhood favorite and Shukette was lauded as one of the top ten new restaurants by the New York Times in 2021.

Chef Ayesha was recognized as a finalist for the Best Chef: New York Award by the James Beard Foundation in 2022.
